

JOYCE SKILL CENTER

Vision and History

To see women to gain confidence, leadership capacity, participate in decision-making, to lead a life of dignity free from poverty, fear and violence.

Miss. Rebecca Khan (Team leader) got vision in the condition of bearing grief of losing her mother, to uplift the families of female domestic workers. God gave her a line of action to bear the great loss through establishment of JSC.

Joyce David Khan my mother(a teacher), who was sympathy and loveable lady, always worried about the persons who are in link of her weather daughters and sons, relative or stranger or servants at home, or Pastors in Church. She was God gifted prayerful lady, she lived spiritually mature life in family and community.

I tribute JOYCE SKILL Center to my mother my inspiration, who always came forward to help the poor and the needy.

In December team of Joyce Skill Center Miss. Rebecca Khan(team leader), Miss. Nayab khan (decor JSC & JS), Miss. Bushra Nazir, Mrs. Bimla James and Mrs. Amna Zafar who are the stepping stones to establish this center for the uplift of the daughters of domestic female workers and less opportunists girls of Township and Green Town Slums.

In Education we are contributing our roll through Joy Home School in these slums to educate girls and boys of domestic female workers and labourers. This education enviornment is learning with joyful activities. Our staff is professionally educated and serving chilren with hardwork and knowledge. we are providing books and copies to the students. the team of JOYCE SKILL CENTER and friends make this project a success.

I want to mention some of my friends and well-wishers Pastor Pervaiz Samuel, Mr. Asher Riaz, Mr. Zafar Daniel, Mrs. Alice Garick, Miss. Rubina Shaukat, Mrs. Karen Azeem, Bishop Johnathan Rehmat from New York, Mrs. Aqeela Daud from England, My family (Miss. Theodore Khan, Ms. Sarwat Jalal, Mr. Enose Suleman and Miss. Ruth Khan) and many more, they gave us huge stability when we began with none: everyone knew who they were to us, they trusted us from the very beginning, and we still have a unique, wonderful relationship.

JOYCE Skill Center and Joy home School is serving the community with all its talent and experience.
